Gretchen Scheuermann is the owner and Director of Golf Instruction at the Highlands Golf Park in Ruckersville, VA. In addition to managing this nationally recognized “Top 100 Range”, she is also responsible for all of the instruction at this Teaching Center. Gretchen was a scholarship athlete at Northwestern University where she graduated from the School of Education & Social Policy. During her collegiate career, she won the national collegiate field hockey Player of the Year Award and became a member of the U.S. Field Hockey Team.

After coaching collegiately for a few years, Gretchen switched gears to pursue her golf talent - and follow in her mother’s footsteps (also a golf professional). Before becoming a member of the LPGA Teaching & Club Professional Division, Gretchen won the Greene Hills Club Championship and was runner-up in the Charlottesville City Tournament. Now, she participates in national & sectional LPGA Teaching & Club Professional Tournaments.

Gretchen has great passion and enthusiasm for teaching the game of golf. She is a patient instructor with very effective communication abilities. As a dedicated professional, she enjoys helping players (juniors, women and men) of all ages and skill levels improve their game.
